

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Mabel Hubbard Bell, July 27, 1881, with transcript

ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL TO MABEL (Hubbard) BELL Volta Laboratory, 1221 Conn. Ave., Washington, D. C. July 27th, 1881. Dear May:

I send you copies of two letters I wrote to Dr. Bliss. Consider them like my last letter to you — private and confidential.

No harm in showing the letter about Lieut. Simpson.

Cards and blank cheque received. Love.

Your own, Alec. Mrs. A. Graham Bell, Cambridge.
